

ITF President was welcomed by IOC President

Prof. CHANG Ung, the President of ITF and IMGC, was welcomed by IOC President Dr. Jacques ROGGE on May 18th, 2006 and held the open talks with him at the IOC HQ in Lausanne, Swiss for further development of ITF as well as for the combined developments of all the Martial-Art Disciplines on this globe.

First of all, the IOC President paid the great attentions to the issue of Taekwon-Do and shared the comprehensive views and opinions with ITF President to facilitate the on-going talks between ITF and WTF.

At the talks, the IOC President suggested to Prof. CHANG Ung to play more active roles in bringing the ideal solutions to the matter of all kinds of martial arts worldwide in the near future as one of the leaders responsible for the development of Martial-Art in the field of International Sports arena including the IOC.

Dear Colleague and Friend,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to attend the Opening Ceremony of the 2nd International Martial Art Games. Unfortunately, I will not be able to be present owing to other commitments.

However, may I ask you if you could officially represent the IOC on my behalf at this event and convey my best wishes to all the participants.

Thanking you for your continuous support and wishing you a successful organisation of these games, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Jacques ROGGE

Dear Colleague and Friend,

I have been informed that GAISF is examining the situation of martial arts. The IOC would be very interested in being informed of the policy and conclusions of GAISF.

May I suggest that our colleague, Ung Chang, ITF President, be involved in these discussions. He has a profound knowledge of the martial arts situation world-wide and could be of great help in the deliberations that GAISF will have with stakeholders.

Yours sincerely,
